Position Description

Reports to	Head Gardener & Caretaker
Department	Gardens
Term	Ongoing
Commitment	Garden volunteer shifts are scheduled on the first and third Thursday of each month, 10am – 1pm. An ongoing commitment of 1-2 shifts per month is required.

About Heide

Heide Museum of Modern Art (Heide) offers an inspiring, educational and thought-provoking experience of modern and contemporary art, architecture, social history and gardens.

Heide presents 10-14 exhibitions per year, across five galleries, with associated publications, public and education programs.

The Heide Collection comprises approximately 3,400 works in all media, and includes a significant representation of Australian modern art by key artists from the 1930s to the 1950s. It offers a perspective on modern and contemporary art practice, as well as Heide history.

About Gardens

The gardens at Heide Museum of Modern Art are as integral a part of the visitor experience as the artworks themselves. The six and a half hectares of gardens are an ever-varying, tranquil environment of majestic trees, shrubs, flowering plants and paddocks that extend down over the river flats to the banks of the Yarra River. Planting types include native and introduced species, herbaceous beds and vegetable gardens.

Under direction from the Head Gardener, the Museum's Garden Volunteer Program aims to develop a team of dedicated individuals a broad, general understanding of the maintenance of a heritage garden.
